Welcome: PGI Renato Lima de Oliveira

Introduction: María Luisa Téllez, International Vice President for Formation & Training SSVP

12.10 - Are we ready to recognize and listen to the pain of the soul that, after two years of the pandemic, has settled in many men and women facing an uncertain future?
Anbiah Fernando Francis, Territorial Training Delegate, Asia 1 (India)

12.25 - In the "throwaway culture", not only of our brothers and sisters but also of superfluous and unnecessary things, are we ready to dispense with unnecessary things? Are we ready to live in austerity or at least think about it?
Clement Colin Venter, Territorial Training Delegate, Africa 2 (South Africa)

12.40 - Can we do without the superfluous for the benefit of our poorer brothers and sisters?
Mary Charles, Territorial Training Delegate, America 1 (Grenada)

12.55 - Break

13.05 - As Christians and Vincentians, do we understand the words of Christ when he reminds us: "my Kingdom is not of this world"?
Timothy P. Williams, Formation Director, SSVP USA

13.20 - After the pandemic, will we be able to live a life more centered on the culture of the soul, of the spirit, of intelligence and of love, of encounter with God and with our brothers and sisters?
Ella Bitar, International Territorial Vice President for the Middle East and North Africa (Lebanon)

13.35 - Questions and comments period.

13:55 - Closing of the day by María Luisa Téllez
